

NOW I KNOW HE IS ALIVE

1st verse - Jn 20:1-2, 11-18; Mk 16:9-10

2nd verse - Mk 16:1-8; Lk 24:1-11

3rd verse - Mt 28:20; Mk 16:20; Lk 24:32

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

How could I ever explain it?
It's a joy that's overflowing, I can't contain it.
I have seen the Lord, he is risen.
He was there before my eyes.

First he asked why I was crying,
then he called my name
and there's no denying:
he was standing right there before me.
Now I know he is alive.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia...

Angels like lightning were gleaming.
When we saw them we thought we must be dreaming.
There inside the tomb they were standing and the stone was rolled away.

Then they said: "Why are you looking here among the dead for the one who's living?
Go and tell the world he is risen
and no longer be afraid."

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia...

Now we set out on our journey.
As he walks among us our hearts are burning.
Even when the day turns to darkness,
he will stay here at our side.

The signs of his passion and glory
hidden in the pages of our own story, we know he will be with us always till the very end of time.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia...

Words: Paola Stradi
Music: Nancy L. Uelmen,
M. Thérèse Henderson,
Jocelyn K. Belamide

Album He's Alive